THE BOSTON CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC was founded February 11, 1867, by the eminent musician, Julius Eichberg, who was graduated from the Conservatory of Brussels with first prizes in violin and composition. After serving several years as professor at the Geneva Conservatory, he came to Boston in 1859 to become director of the Museum Concerts, a post he held until 1866. Mr. Eichberg was a composer of a wide range of chamber music, studies, songs, and operettas. Under his leadership the Conservatory gained a standing among leading music schools, attracting students from all parts of the country.

Following Eichberg's death (1893) the Conservatory came under the direction of Herman P. Chelius, well known organist and composer. The school was first incorporated under the Laws of Massachusetts in 1896. There followed several unsettled years during which time re-organizations were effected in 1905 and 1914.

In 1920, Agide Jacchia, an honor graduate of the Conservatory of Pessaro, was appointed director. Mr. Jacchia came to America in 1907 where he held engagements as musical director of opera companies in the United States, Canada, Central America and Mexico. He was for ten years conductor of the Boston "Pops" concerts (1917-1926). His knowledge and wide experience proved of inestimable value in re-establishing the prestige of the Conservatory. He continued as director until his death in 1932 and was succeeded for a short time by his widow, Mme. Ester Ferrabini Jacchia.

In 1933 the Conservatory came under the leadership of Albert Alphin, a former pupil and teacher at the school. He is responsible for reorganizing the school as a non-profit institution, acquiring its present complex of buildings on the Fenway, and the construction of its theatre (1949). Innovations under his guidance were the formulation of the Music Education department (1933), and the establishment of a theatre department offering programs in Drama and Dance leading to the baccalaureate degree. This combination was unique in making the school one of the first Conservatories in the country to offer professional training in the three performing arts, Music, Drama, and Dance.

The growth and stability of the Boston Conservatory is a tribute to the many distinguished musicians and teachers that have served on the faculty including such names as Ester Ferrabini Jacchia, Arturo Vita, Wellington Smith, voice; Hans Ebell, George Vieh, Georg Fior, piano; Otto Straub, Karl Weigl, Alan Hovhaness, composition; Carmine Fabrizio, Serge Korgueff, Ottaker Sevcik, violin; and many members of the Boston Symphony Orchestra. The current staff of over 70 includes artists and teachers who have served the Conservatory with distinction for a number of years.

Graduates of the Boston Conservatory of Music hold positions as performers in orchestras, major dance companies and theatre companies, and serve as music educators in schools and colleges throughout the country.

In its second century the Boston Conservatory will remain dedicated to the continuance of its efforts towards the sound preparation of tomorrow's teachers and artists thus contributing to the ever expanding influence of the arts in our society.

GENERAL INFORMATION

PURPOSE

It is the purpose of the Boston Conservatory of Music to provide professional training in the three allied arts—music, drama, and dance—reinforced by a sound general education that will make graduates more resourceful as teachers and performers and more responsible as citizens. The numerous former students now successfully employed as performers or teachers speak for the realization of this purpose. To its continued realization, the faculty and administration are whole-heartedly devoted.

UNDERGRADUATE ADMISSION

Application for admission must be made on official Conservatory forms and submitted well in advance of the intended entrance date. All applicants are considered without regard to race, creed, color, or national origin. The applicant will be required to submit to the Admissions Office the scores of at least one national college-entrance examination. These examinations are administered at secondary schools, or by direct arrangement with:

The College Entrance Examination Board
 Eastern Office: Box 592, Princeton, New Jersey
 Western Office: Box 1025, Berkeley, California 94701

The American College Testing Program
 P. O. Box 168
 Iowa City, Iowa

For admission to a Degree Program, college preparatory study should total a minimum of sixteen entrance units, distributed as follows:

English (4 years' study)	4 units
Foreign Language	2
Higher Mathematics	1
Social Studies	1
Laboratory Science	1
*Fixed Electives	4
Free Electives	3

16

*These four units must be earned in Language, Mathematics, Science or Social Science.

Foreign students must submit results of the Test of English as a Foreign Language. Additional information may be obtained from United States Embassies and Legations.

For admission to the Diploma Program, the academic requirements are not specific; however, a high school education or its equivalent is required.

ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS

MUSIC

For acceptance to a music major course, an applicant must give evidence, by audition, of his ability to pursue Conservatory level work. Voice and instrumental applied music majors are assigned one-hour private lessons weekly; concentrates and minors, one-half hour private lessons weekly. Students may elect additional instruction at extra cost.

Proficiency levels for acceptance are as follows:

PIANO MAJOR. An applicant should have acquired a reliable technical foundation. Repertoire should include representative works from the Baroque, Classical, Romantic, and Contemporary literature.

ORGAN MAJOR. An applicant should be able to meet the requirements for entering Freshmen in Piano, or demonstrate a comparable advancement in technique and repertory on the Organ.

VOICE MAJOR. An applicant should be able to sing art songs with true intonation and developed tone quality, and in the original language (French, German, Italian). The ability to play piano is desirable.

STRING MAJOR. An applicant should have acquired a reliable technical foundation through the study and performance of etudes, scales, and appropriate repertoire.

HARP MAJOR. An applicant should have acquired a reliable technical foundation and have performing proficiency in appropriate repertoire.

WIND MAJOR. An applicant should have acquired a reliable technical foundation through the study of etudes, scales, and repertoire appropriate to his instrument.

PERCUSSION MAJOR. An applicant should have acquired a reliable technical foundation for the playing of snare drum, timpani, and melodic mallet instruments, and have studied appropriate repertoire for each.

MUSIC EDUCATION MAJOR. Applicants to these programs must demonstrate proficiency on at least one instrument or voice.
COMPOSITION MAJOR. Ability to play the piano is highly desirable.

ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS DRAMA

Applicants in Drama must present an audition which consists of:

1. One selection from classic repertoire, i.e. Greek, Elizabethan, Restoration, or 18th Century.
2. Two selections from contemporary plays, one comedy and one serious.

Each selection shall be at least one minute and not over three minutes in duration. Scenes should be memorized and prepared without direction or coaching from anyone. Several speeches by one character may be blended, omitting other characters to make a scene of sufficient length, or both parts of a two character scene may be read, or another person may assist by reading the other parts.

Applicants for the Drama Major-Musical Theatre Minor, in addition to the above, must be prepared to sing two contemporary show tunes.

- 1 A ballad or love song of sustained tone quality.
2. A light rhythmic song.

N. B. The applicant must bring his own sheet music. An accompanist will be provided.

ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS DANCE

Dance applicants must participate in two audition classes, one ballet and one modern. These auditions are scheduled for Saturdays periodically through the year. Applicants should bring to these auditions piano music or recorded tape (7½) of two minutes duration. On acceptance to the program, the student has one year of probation. Continuation in the program is based on talent, intelligent cooperation and endurance.

TRANSFER STUDENTS

Transfer students applying for advanced standing should include a transcript of work accomplished at their former school, together with its recent catalog. Transfer credit in Applied Music, Music Theory, Applied Drama, and Applied Dance, is determined by examination, on entrance to the Conservatory. Transfer policies and length of residency requirements will be determined by the Board of Admissions or the Graduate Division. This determination will normally be made during the first semester of residency.

EXTENSION PROGRAM

Private instruction in instruments and voice is available to those who may wish to pursue such studies during the day or early evening hours. Extension dance classes are also available.

SUMMER INSTRUCTION

Credit may be earned on both the undergraduate and graduate levels in applied music, theory, composition, and music education during the Summer Session. Credit may also be earned on the undergraduate level in Dance and Drama courses. For details, write for the Special Summer Bulletin.

TUITION POLICY

All tuition charges including residence fees, if applicable, must be paid on the specified date. (See pages 36-37).

For students and parents desiring to pay education expenses in monthly installments, deferred payment programs are available through commercial educational loan agencies.

MEDICAL INSURANCE

A medical insurance plan is provided through BLUE CROSS-BLUE SHIELD at a nominal annual fee. Students not covered by any other form of medical insurance are advised to enroll in this plan. Its benefits greatly assist in the event of serious illness or other emergency.

EXAMINATIONS

SEMESTER EXAMINATIONS. All students following the degree or diploma programs are required to take examinations in their courses at the end of each semester.

APPLIED MUSIC EXAMINATIONS. All students seeking credit in applied music must perform at Concert Hour and before a faculty jury at the end of each semester. Students with an unsatisfactory attendance record (fewer than 13 lessons per semester) will not be admitted to this audition, and will be graded "failure".

GRADING SYSTEM. A, 4.000; A—, 3.700; B+, 3.300; B, 3.000; B—, 2.700; C+, 2.300; C, 2.000; C—, 1.700; D, 1.000; E, Failure; H, Honors; S, Satisfactory; U, Failure.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

Each candidate for the Bachelor of Music Degree must complete the prescribed course of study in his program with satisfactory grades. A student receiving grades below C— in more than 12 credit hours will not be permitted to graduate.

APPLIED MUSIC MAJORS must have studied a comprehensive repertoire of literature in their chosen field and must give solo recitals in the junior and senior years. Outstanding soloists may audition for performances with the orchestra or other instrumental combinations.

MUSIC EDUCATION MAJORS must have studied representative literature in their applied concentrate and must give a public recital in their senior year. This recital must be performed from memory by voice and piano concentrates. Other instrumental concentrates must perform at least one major work or equivalent from memory.

COMPOSITION MAJORS must give evidence by examination that they have acquired proficiency on their applied concentrate and must present for approval a folio of original compositions (neatly written in ink) as follows:

1. not less than five works in smaller forms—piano pieces, songs and/or solos for orchestral instruments;
2. a composition in fugal form for string quartet, woodwind or brass ensemble;
3. an example of sonata-form for piano or for ensemble combination;
4. a composition of symphonic proportions or a work for chorus and orchestra (minimum duration 15 minutes). Two copies of this final work must be appropriately bound and presented to the Conservatory Library two weeks before graduation.

In addition to prescribed course work, composition majors are both encouraged and expected to do creative work on their own. Frequent concerts of student compositions are presented.

DANCE AND DRAMA candidates for the Bachelor of Fine Arts Degree must provide evidence of successful completion of the prescribed curriculum. A student receiving grades below C— in more than twelve credit hours will not be permitted to graduate.

SCHOLARSHIPS

The following scholarships afford assistance for a limited number of students who show evidence of exceptional ability and financial need. Scholarships awarded to students are renewable upon application. Applicants for scholarships should complete the Parent's Confidential Statement or the Student's Financial Statement and file with the College Scholarship Service of the College Entrance Examination Board. Forms may be obtained from high school guidance offices or from the Boston Conservatory of Music.

THE SEVCIK SCHOLARSHIP. A fund established for the aid of deserving violin students by the distinguished violin pedagogue, Professor Ottakar Sevcik, during his visit to America (1931-32) as guest teacher.

BLANCHE B. PARKER FUND. The income of a bequest under the will of the late Blanche B. Parker to be used for the assistance of one or more women students of voice.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION SCHOLARSHIPS. A special fund established by the Alumni Association.

BERTHA T. OTIS SCHOLARSHIP. The income from a fund established by the late Bertha T. Otis.

FACULTY SCHOLARSHIPS. Scholarships sponsored by faculty members are available to students of composition, voice, organ, pianoforte, orchestral instruments, dance, and drama.

CONSERVATORY SCHOLARSHIP FUND. A fund made possible by individual contributions and by proceeds from various benefit recitals and activities.

FRANCIS FINDLAY MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP FUND. A fund established by family and friends, in memory of Mr Francis Findlay (1894-1967), former chairman of the department of Music Education and Graduate Study.

AWARDS. The following medals are awarded annually to the two full-time students (12 or more hours) who have maintained the highest averages for the school-year: for highest honors, the ARTHUR B. WHITNEY MEDAL; for second highest honors, the ALUMNI ASSOCIATION MEDAL.

PUBLIC PERFORMANCES

Throughout the academic year, the Conservatory maintains a full schedule of public recitals, concerts, and ensemble programs. In addition, the Drama and Dance Departments present a variety of major productions and workshop performances. Faculty and guest artists appear frequently throughout the year. Regular attendance at these concerts and participation by qualified students is considered a vital part of the education at the Conservatory.

LIBRARY

The Albert Alphin Music Library houses a specialized collection of books and periodicals in the subject fields of music, drama, and dance as well as a representative collection of college-level books in the liberal arts. A noteworthy collection is the Jan Veen-Katrine Amory Hooper Memorial Collection containing many rare and foreign books on dance and art. The library's music collection includes miniature scores, music anthologies, and Gesamtausgaben for study purposes and, in addition, includes orchestral, concert band, chamber ensemble, choral, operatic, and solo instrumental and vocal scores for both study and performance purposes. The library houses phonorecordings and audio-tape recordings of the classical music repertoire from its earliest history to the present, and phonorecordings of the spoken word in poetry and drama. A special collection is the audio-tape library of all major Boston Conservatory of Music performances from 1966 to date. The library's audio-visual equipment includes modern listening facilities and microfilm reading facilities.

The library resources are supplemented by the Inter-library Loan System which gives access to libraries across the nation. Situated in the heart of Boston the library further supplements its resources with the historic collections of the famous Boston Public Library, easily available due to proximity. To meet the needs of the faculty and students the library has increased its holdings at the rate of over 3,000 books, scores, and recordings each year. Recent benefactors who have contributed to the library's growth are: the family of the late Francis Findlay; the late Katrine Amory Hooper; the family of the late Alfred Mirovitch; and the late Jan Veen.

RESIDENCE

The Conservatory maintains residence halls near its classroom buildings, facing The Fenway. Each of these houses is supervised by its own director, and is notable for its home-like atmosphere and friendly cooperation. Meals are served in the Conservatory dining room where two meals are provided daily. A la carte lunches are available week days at nominal rates.

Room and board reservation should be made as soon as a student is notified of acceptance for admission. This reservation is secured by an advance deposit of $100, which is applicable to the student's account, and not refundable. In all cases, this reservation is held as binding for the school year, and may not be broken except for an emergency which, in the judgement of the Administration, necessitates a student's withdrawal from school.

DIPLOMA COURSES

The Diploma Course is designed for the student whose talent and interest may warrant intensive training in his major field and basic related subjects. The program parallels the degree curriculum, minus certain academics, and is intended to prepare the student as a performer and for private teaching. Graduation from high school, or equivalent, is required for admission. Applied music majors are required to give a recital in the junior and senior years.

THE GRADUATE DIVISION

WILLIAM A. SEYMOUR, Chairman

THE BOSTON CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC offers courses leading to the Master of Music degree in the fields of Applied Music (instrumental and vocal), Composition and Music Education. The Graduate Division Program is open to those who hold the Bachelor of Music degree or other equivalent baccalaureate degree with a major in music from a school of recognized standing. Records of undergraduate studies presented for entrance must represent work equivalent in quality and content to that prescribed for similar degrees at the Boston Conservatory.

REQUIREMENTS: The minimum requirement for the master's degree is the completion of thirty-two semester hours, twenty-six of which must be earned in residence. A grade of B or better must be obtained in all subjects in the course. No applicant can be assured that he may fulfill the requirements in one academic year, since much depends upon the undergraduate preparation, possible deficiencies to be removed, and the ability of the individual student. Applied majors, or music education candidates electing the recital option, are required to be registered and studying in the respective applied area for a minimum of four semesters, or the equivalent. All undergraduate prerequisite studies in the major field must be made up without graduate credit. A change of major from the undergraduate level will usually involve the fulfillment of pre-requisites. All graduate programs, including elective subjects and changes of program, must be approved.

Each candidate for the degree with a major in APPLIED MUSIC will be required to present a full length public recital demonstrating high artistic accomplishment. The program for this recital must be previewed before a faculty jury for approval before the date of the public recital will be announced. Specific requirements for the graduate level recital are available from the Chairman of the Graduate Division. Credit for the final semester of applied study will be issued upon successful completion of the public recital.

A candidate for the degree with a major in COMPOSITION is required to prepare a thesis. The thesis will be one of the following:

- (a) An original composition scored for full orchestra and requiring not less than fifteen minutes in performance. This composition may be for chorus, solo voice, or an instrument, with orchestral accompaniment.
- (b) An original composition for chamber orchestra requiring not less than fifteen minutes in performance.
- (c) An original orchestral composition scored for full orchestra requiring not less than ten minutes in performance, and a shorter work for chorus or an instrumental combination requiring not less than five minutes in performance.

Two bound scores of the above must be presented to the Conservatory Library prior to the date of graduation. A candidate in this curriculum is required to elect a minimum of twelve credit hours in Composition subjects at the graduate level, and four credit hours of applied music study.

A candidate for the degree with a major in MUSIC EDUCATION may choose one of the following:

- (a) The preparation of a thesis concerning an approved topic of interest and importance in the field of Music Education. Preparation of the thesis will be under the guidance of a faculty advisor. A completed typewritten copy of the thesis must be submitted for correction and approval at least six weeks prior to the date of intended graduation. After approval, two copies of the completed, bound thesis must be presented to the Conservatory Library prior to graduation. In this program the candidate must elect Introduction to Graduate Study,

Music Education 129 and 130 (Thesis), a minimum of 12 credit hours of Music Education electives, and a minimum of 4 credit hours of applied music study.

- (b) The performance of a full length public recital demonstrating high artistic accomplishment. The program for this recital must be pre-viewed before a faculty jury for approval before the date of the public recital will be announced. Specific requirements for the graduate level recital are available from the Chairman of the Graduate Division. In this program the candidate must elect a minimum of 12 credit hours of Music Education electives, and 12 credit hours of applied music study. Credit for the final semester of applied music study will be issued upon successful completion of the public recital.

ADMISSION: An applicant to the Graduate Division must comply with the following:

- (a) File an application, on a form provided by the Conservatory, with the Chairman of the Graduate Division at least two months prior to the time of intended matriculation.
- (b) Submit transcript (s) of all work completed for the undergraduate degree, and catalog (s) describing course content.
- (c) Submit scores of the aptitude portion of the Graduate Record Examination. These examinations are administered throughout the year. Information may be obtained from:

Educational Testing Service
Princeton, New Jersey 08540
(or)

1947 Center Street
Berkley, California 94704

- (d) Foreign students must submit results of the Test of English as a Foreign Language. Additional information may be obtained from United States Embassies and Legations.

All applicants will be interviewed and auditioned by faculty of the Graduate Division. Candidates who qualify for acceptance, but who have deficiencies for admission, will be given provisional graduate standing until such time as the undergraduate deficiencies have been removed. Such deficiencies must be removed at least one semester before completion of the graduate degree program.

Full time graduate students may be required to participate in rehearsals and performances of Conservatory Ensembles. Applied music majors must appear in scheduled public performances.

DESCRIPTION OF STUDIES

EAR TRAINING

EAR TRAINING 1-2. Review of the basic fundamentals of music; notation, clefs, scales, tonality, intervals, chords, ornamentation, terminology. Rhythmic articulation and sight-singing in treble and bass clefs. Rhythmic and melodic dictation. The system of stationary solfeggio syllables is used.

Two hours weekly; credit, one and one-half hours each semester.

EAR TRAINING 3-4. Advanced studies in rhythmic singing, and sight-singing in alto and tenor clefs; harmonic dictation, dictation in two, three, and four parts, and in changing meter.

Two hours weekly; credit, one and one-half hours each semester.

SOLFEGE 105-106. An advanced course in sight-singing in all clefs; harmonic dictation, and transposition. Pre-requisite: Ear Training 3-4, or equivalent.

Private Instruction; credit, two hours each semester.

HARMONY

HARMONY 1-2. The Harmonic Style of the 18th and early 19th centuries. Preliminary definitions; intervals; triads and their inversions; principles of chord progression; nonharmonic tones; harmonic rhythm; seventh chords and their inversions; modulation to related keys; secondary dominants; harmonization of given basses and melodies; introduction to harmonic analysis; keyboard harmony.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

HARMONY 3-4. The Harmonic Style of the later 19th Century. Irregular resolutions; modulation to remote keys; the diminished seventh chords; 9th, 11th, and 13th chords; nondominant seventh chords; chromatically altered chords; exercises in vocal and instrumental style; analysis of Bach chorales and other literature; keyboard harmonization of basses and melodies.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

HARMONY 5-6. An advanced course primarily for composition majors. Special study of the application of modern harmonic technique. Polytonality, atonality, pandiatonicism, and other devices pertinent to the contemporary idiom.

Credit, one hour each semester.

COUNTERPOINT

COUNTERPOINT 1-2. Species counterpoint in two parts; canon, double counterpoint; inventions in two parts.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

COUNTERPOINT 3-4. Free counterpoint in three and four parts; canon and fugue.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

COUNTERPOINT 5-6. Advanced study in fugue, canon, passacaglia; application of contrapuntal forms to contemporary music.

Private instruction; credit, two hours each semester.

COUNTERPOINT 107-108. Double and triple counterpoint; contemporary techniques; linear counterpoint; analysis of representative works.

Private instruction; credit, two hours each semester.

FORM AND ANALYSIS

FORM AND ANALYSIS 1-2. Underlying principles of chord structure and harmonic rhythm as they affect form and content; non-harmonic and contrapuntal devices. In the first semester shorter forms will be studied from piano and vocal literature. In the second semester the larger forms, including Sonatas and Concertos, will be examined. Representative scores will be analyzed to illustrate various approaches to form, texture, and instrumentation, and their bearing on performance.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

FORM AND ANALYSIS 103-104. An advanced course for graduate students, comprising a detailed examination of scores in several media, for better understanding of individual composers' styles, and the main direction of musical development. The first semester comprises the later evolution of chromatic harmony to early Schoenberg, and the second explores other 20th century techniques of tonal organization.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

ARRANGING

ARRANGING 1-2. (Music Education 13-14). Contemporary techniques in professional arranging: melodic analysis, harmonization of melody, close and open voicing, instrumentation, idiomatic harmonic progressions, characteristics of sectional versus ensemble arranging.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

ARRANGING 3-4. Application of fundamentals to varied instrumental combinations, from four piece to fifteen piece ensembles.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

ARRANGING 105-106. (Pre-requisite; Arranging or Instrumentation 1, 2). Advanced arranging techniques.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

INSTRUMENTATION

INSTRUMENTATION 1-2. A study of the nature of the various orchestral instruments. Scoring for vocal ensembles, band and orchestral combinations.

One hour weekly; credit, one hour each semester.

INSTRUMENTATION 3-4. Scoring for full orchestra and/or band, and for various instrumental combinations.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

INSTRUMENTATION 105-106. A continuation of Instrumentation 3-4, with emphasis on orchestration for the symphony orchestra. Analysis of the techniques employed by composers of the 18th, 19th and 20th centuries.

Private instruction; credit, two hours each semester.

COMPOSITION

COMPOSITION 1-2. Basic principles of composition beginning with aperiodic athenatic diatonic melody, and progressing to chromaticism and to harmonic and polyphonic structures.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

COMPOSITION 3-4. A wide variety of techniques are utilized in the development of the creative individuality of the composer within a framework of discipline and control. Compositions primarily for small combinations of instruments.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

COMPOSITION 5-6. Twentieth century techniques such as tone-cluster, hyperdense verticalized counterpoint and uses of the pitch-class series. Also composition in techniques of the past and the study of their principles, beginning with 13th century multiple organa.

One hour private lesson weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

COMPOSITION 7-8. Supervised composition of the senior thesis and continued work in techniques of the past, up to and including 18th and 19th century styles.

One hour private lesson weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

COMPOSITION 109-110-111-112. Emphasis on New Music. Pointillistic textures, fragmented melodic textures, complexes, construction and use of harmonic aggregates. Ways of achieving form and structure arithmetically. Texture-types and their inter-relationships. New rhythmic technique. Guided experimental composition.

Private, one hour weekly; credit, two and one-half hours each semester.

COMPOSITION 113. Seminar in Exploratory Composition. Creative projects utilizing new notational and performance techniques. Aleatoric and mechanistic principles applied to structure and form. Related score analysis. (Open to composition majors and other graduate students by consent of the instructor).

Three hours weekly; credit, three hours one semester.

MUSIC HISTORY AND LITERATURE

MUSIC HISTORY AND LITERATURE 1-2. A survey course, designed to give the student a background in musical style from primitive to modern times. Weekly listening sessions supplement the class work.

Three hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

MUSIC HISTORY AND LITERATURE 3-4. An examination of representative compositions from the Middle Ages to the present, emphasizing technical details of individual styles and their relationship to the epoch in which they occur.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

MUSIC HISTORY 105. Polyphony, Its Origins and Development:

A chronological survey of music of the Middle Ages and Renaissance from medieval religious and secular monody to multiple choir and instrumental works. Performance practices and style analysis.

Three hours weekly; credit, three hours per semester.

MUSIC HISTORY 106. Music Profane of the Middle Ages and Renaissance:

A study of the secular aspects of music during these periods; ballades, origins of the art song, instrumental considerations; a practical approach through performance of the literature study-styles, sources, and authentic performance practices.

Three hours weekly; credit, three hours per semester.

MUSIC HISTORY 107. The Symphony — Its Origin and Development Through Classicism:

A survey and investigation of the symphony as it developed from early instrumental forms through the organized sophistication of high classicism.

Three hours weekly; credit, three hours per semester.

MUSIC HISTORY 108. The Symphony in the Romantic Period:

An investigation of the changing concepts of the symphony following high classicism, including further developments in instrumentation. Emphasis on selected works of representative composers.

Three hours weekly; credit, three hours per semester.

MUSIC HISTORY 109. Program Music of the Nineteenth Century:

The development of the symphonic tone poem; impressionism in music; instrumental and keyboard literature of the high romantic and impressionistic periods; representative works by selected composers.

Three hours weekly; credit, three hours per semester.

MUSIC HISTORY 110. Twentieth Century Music—Its Origins and Direction:

History of twentieth century music with emphasis on the path leading from early atonality to the New Music of today; recent electronic, instrumental music and theoretical writings by Stockhausen, Boulez, Berio and others. Comparison of schools of thought.

Three hours weekly; credit, three hours per semester.

MUSIC HISTORY 111. History and Literature of the Opera (I):

A chronological survey of the opera from the foundation of Baroque Opera in Florence through the classic operas of Mozart. A study of representative works by major composers.

Three hours weekly; credit, three hours each semester.

MUSIC HISTORY 112. History and Literature of the Opera (II):

Nineteenth century Italian opera through the music drama of Wagner and culminating with opera in the twentieth century. A study of representative works of major composers.

Three hours weekly; credit, three hours each semester.

PIANO LITERATURE 1-2. A survey of masterworks for the piano through live and recorded performances, stressing editions, composers' intentions, and interpretation. May be re-elected for credit.

One hour weekly; credit, one hour each semester.

VOCAL LITERATURE 1-2. Reading and study of representative literature of the English, Italian, French and German masters of all periods.

One hour weekly; credit, one hour each semester.

CHURCH MUSIC

CHURCH MUSIC 1-2. Choir Training: Methods of organization; rehearsal techniques; choral repertory; program building; various rituals, chant; pronunciation of church Latin.

Credit, two hours each semester.

CHURCH MUSIC 103-104. A study of the history of sacred music; Gregorian chant; Anglican chant; notation.

Credit, two hours each semester.

ORATORIO

ORATORIO 1-2. A study of the standard oratorios, cantatas, and masses with emphasis on reading, analysis, and interpretation.

One hour weekly; credit, one hour each semester.

ORATORIO 103-104. A comprehensive study of the more significant oratorios and related choral works from the 16th century to the present.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

COACHING and DICTION

A course for voice students devoted to the preparation of representative art song literature and/or operatic roles for public performance. Special emphasis is given to musical interpretation and diction in the respective languages.

Private instruction; credit, two hours each semester.

OPERA WORKSHOP

OPERA WORKSHOP 1-2. Coordination of action with music; application of acting techniques to arias and ensembles; fundamentals of gesture and movement and character analysis of roles. Frequent public presentations.

Four to eight hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

OPERA WORKSHOP 3-4. Thorough study of separate scenes and complete acts from both classical and modern operas. Qualified students may participate in the Conservatory's opera productions.

Four to eight hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

OPERA WORKSHOP 105-106. A continuation of Opera Workshop 3-4.

Four to eight hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

VOICE THERAPY

VOICE THERAPY 1-2 (105-106, Graduate level). A thorough study of the anatomy and physiology of the larynx and respiratory organs and musculature by means of lectures, slides, and motion pictures; a study of the various pathologies involved in the throat problems curable or aided by voice-therapy. Exercises, general and specific, for handling these problems. In some cases actual patients may be brought in for purposes of demonstration before the class.

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.

VOICE THERAPY 3-4 (107-108, Graduate level). The second year is devoted to clinical internship in connection with local medical institutions where students work with patients and become acquainted with all the problems, physical and psychological, encountered by the voice-therapist. This clinical experience consists of one session per week of two hours' duration, plus a symposium. All progress is noted by periodic tape-recordings of the patients' voices. (Pre-requisite: Voice Therapy 1-2).

Two hours weekly; credit, two hours each semester.
